STIFTUNG LOUISENLUND

Overview

Stiftung Louisenlund is proud to be an International Baccalaureate World School, offering both the IB Diploma Programme and the final year of the Middle Years Programme (candidate status), in addition to the German Abitur. In the years since its founding in 1968, the IB Diploma Programme has become a leading, internationally recognized pre-university qualification and a symbol of academic excellence worldwide. One of the only boarding schools in Germany accredited as an IB World School, Louisenlund is committed to its student-centered learning and wellbeing. At Louisenlund, we strive to produce inquiring, lifelong learners, who can work well in a team and tackle academic and professional challenges in local and global contexts.
